

1st GGP User Conference

23-24 May 2011, Budapest

Programme Overview

	23 May 2011		24 May 2011
	Room Keleti Károly	Room Fényes Elek	Room Keleti Károly	Room Fényes Elek
9:00-10:30	Registration (8:30-9:30) Opening session (9:30-10:30)	-	A4. Labour market and economic well-being	B4. Methodological considerations for studying fertility
10:30-11:00	Coffee break
11:00-12:30	A1. Well-being of the elderly	B1. Fertility behaviour	A5. Division of (un)paid work	B5. Fertility, union formation and marriage
12:30-14:00	Lunch break
14:00-15:30	A2. Intergenerational relationships	B2. Fertility of subpopulations and different social groups	A6. Survey methods and implementation	B6. Cohabitation
15:30-16:00	Coffee break
16:00-17:30	A3. Fertility intentions and their realization	B3. Data quality and validation	Closing of the conference	-

1st GGP User Conference Programme

Monday, 23 May 2011

8:30-9:30: Registration

9:30-10:30: Opening session

10:30-11:00: Coffee break

11:00-12:30, Room Keleti Károly:

Session A1: Well-being of the elderly

1. Jenny Gierveld: Coresidence, familial support exchanges and loneliness of older adults
2. Aline Désesquelles: Psychosocial determinants of the self-rating of health among French people aged 60 and over
3. Katalin Kovács: Gender differences in living conditions and physical and psychological well-being of younger elderly: a six-country comparison
4. Tineke Fokkema, Pearl A. Dykstra: Caregiving and volunteering among older adults: the impact on retirement decision

11:00-12:30, Room Fényes Elek:

Session B1: Fertility behaviour

1. Irina Troitskaya, Alexandre Avdeev: Contraceptive behaviour in Europe: individual and institutional factors
2. Cristina Oaneş: A comparative study of contraceptive behaviour of women in France, Russia and Romania: evidence from the first wave of Generations and Gender Survey
3. Michaela Hărăguş: Having a child at young age: associated factors and adult outcomes
4. Judit Takács, Ivett Szalma: A pattern or patterns of childlessness? A comparative study of six GGS countries

12:30-14:00: Lunch break

14:00-15:30, Room Keleti Károly:

Session A2: Intergenerational relationships

1. Leen Heylen, Dimitri Mortelmans, Kim Boudiny, Maarten Herman: Intimacy at a distance? Emotional support between adult children and their parents in Europe
2. Douglas A. Wolf, Kerri M. Raissian, Emily Grundy: Parental disability, parent care, and offspring mental health outcomes

3. Allan Puur, Luule Sakkeus, Asta Põldma: Intergenerational family constellations in Europe: differentials across population groups in the GGS countries
4. Jean-Paul Sanderson, Christophe Vandeschrick: Household organisation and intergenerational relationships in Belgium

14:00-15:30, Room Fényes Elek:

Session B2: Fertility of subpopulations and different social groups

1. Liili Abuladze, Arieke Rijken, Leo van Wissen: Comparing the fertility patterns of first and second generation immigrant Russians in Estonia and the native populations of Estonia and Russia
2. Karel Neels, Jonas Wood: Economic context, social policy and fertility outcomes: a longitudinal analysis of socio-economic fertility differentials in Europe between 1970 and 2000
3. Nitzan Peri-Rotem: Religiousness and fertility in Europe: cross-national and inter-cohort comparison
4. Cornelia Mureşan: Historical times and educational differences on second birth in Romania
5. Tamás Bartus, Lívia Murinkó, Ivett Szalma, Bernadett Szél: Education and fertility: evidence from the Hungarian GGS data

15:30-16:00: Coffee break

16:00-17:30, Room Keleti Károly:

Session A3: Fertility intentions and their realization

1. Arnaud Régnier-Loilier, Daniele Vignoli: Fertility intentions and constraints to realization: France and Italy compared
2. Kerstin Ruckdeschel: The influence of structural factors and individual value orientations on fertility intentions: a comparison of Germany and France
3. Gerda Neyer, Trude Lappegård, Daniele Vignoli: Gender equality and fertility intentions: using the Generations and Gender Survey to test gender theories of fertility behaviour
4. Oxana Sinyavskaya, Alla Tyndik: Gender roles, intentions and decisions to have a child in Russia and other European countries
5. Zsolt Spéder: Gendered divisions of labour and the formation of fertility intentions

16:00-17:30, Room Fényes Elek:

Session B3: Data quality and validation

1. Karel Neels, Tom de Winter, Greten Vermant: Quality of demographic data in GGS wave 1
2. Jane Klobas: Measuring theory of planned behavior concepts with GGP data
3. Isabella Buber: Parity-specific weights for the Austrian Generations and Gender Survey
4. Andrej Kveder, Nicole Hiekel, Julia Mikolai: Cross-nationally equivalent data accuracy? Item nonresponse analysis of the Generations and Gender Surveys and implications for international comparative research

Tuesday, 24 May 2011

9:00-10:30, Room Keleti Károly:

Session A4: Labour market and economic well-being

1. Arnstein Aassve, Bruno Arpino, Alice Goisis: Grandparenting and mothers' labour force participation: a comparative analysis using the Generations and Gender Survey
2. Zsuzsanna Stefán-Makay: Family policy and maternal employment after childbirth: differences between France and Hungary
3. Réka Geambaşu: Women's and men's labour market participation in Hungary and Romania
4. Frank Micheel, Robert Naderi: Subjective assessment of the economic situation of older Turks in connection with their social embedment

9:00-10:30, Room Fényes Elek:

Session B4: Methodological considerations for studying fertility

1. Jan Hoem, Cornelia Mureşan: The Total Marital Fertility Rate and its extensions
2. Sergei V. Zakharov: Coordinates of modern Russian family formation and fertility: what new we have learnt from the Generation and Gender Survey /pending/
3. Isabella Buber, Katrin Fliegenschnee: Are you ready for a child? A methodological triangulation on fertility intentions in Austria
4. Norbert S. Neuwirth: "Yes, perhaps – but maybe not": on subjective perceptions determining doubtful individual fertility intentions

10:30-11:00: Coffee break

11:00-12:30, Room Keleti Károly:

Session A5: Division of (un)paid work

1. Maïke van Damme: Women's marital power in male-breadwinner and post-communist societies: resources, gender ideology, and intra-household decision-making
2. Ariane Pailhé, Anne Solaz: From parental home to the first partner: does having lived solo act upon the current couple housework division? Evidence from France
3. Gerrit Bauer: The division of domestic work among same-sex and heterosexual couples in Western Europe
4. Rumiana Stoilova, Dirk Hofäcker, Jan Rasmus Riebling: Patterns of social inequality in the division of paid and unpaid work: a comparison of Germany, Bulgaria, France and Hungary

11:00-12:30, Room Fényes Elek:

Session B5: Fertility, union formation and marriage

1. Peter McDonald, Anna Reimondos: Relationship pathways and the first birth in Australia /pending/
2. Fiona Willis-Núñez: Familism and fertility in Europe

3. Zhanna Kravchenko: Putting the cart before the horse? Disordered transition into adulthood: consequences for men and women in cross-national perspective
4. Lívía Murinkó: The relationship between partnership formation and first home-leaving in France, Germany, Norway, Romania and Hungary

12:30-14:00: Lunch break

14:00-15:30, Room Keleti Károly:

Session A6: Survey methods and implementation

1. Arnaud Régnier-Loilier: Do survey respondents give the same answers when the partner/spouse is present?
2. Robert Naderi, Kerstin Ruckdeschel, Lenore Sauer: Reliability of retrospective event histories within the German Generations and Gender Survey
3. Christophe Vandeschrick, Jean-Paul Sanderson: The special codes in GGS-Belgium
4. Okka Zimmermann: De-standardization as increase of dissimilarity: an exploration of measures using GGS data for women in France

14:00-15:30, Room Fényes Elek:

Session B6: Cohabitation

1. Nicole Hiekel, Aart C. Liefbroer, Anne-Rigt Poortman: The meaning of cohabitation and marriage across European societies
2. Leen Rahnu, Allan Puur, Vlada Stankūnienė, Sergei Zakharov, Ausra Maslauskaitė: Changing mode of first union formation in the countries of Eastern Europe: the significance of less and more distant demographic divides
3. Balázs Kapitány, Zsolt Spéder: The transition from cohabitation to marriage: the role of demographic, structural and ideational factors

15:30-16:00: Closing of the conference